

SOCIETY BEGINS WAR WORK AT SUMMER RESORTS

Berkshires, Adirondacks and Catskills Expect Active Season—Clubs Booked Up For Summer Sports

AT most of the fashionable summer resorts the season is now under way and in another two weeks will be in full swing. While the war will have a marked effect on the social activities and there will be little or no entertaining on the large scale of former summers, there will be plenty in the way of war work to keep society busy. Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and other war relief work and affairs for local charities will take the place of formal dinners and dances of other years.

Most of the villas at Newport, along the North Shore, Southampton and the Jersey coast have been opened, or will be in the next few days. In some cases the ownership of these has changed hands or the places have been leased, but there is no indication of many of them being closed for the season. All the hotels report heavy bookings for July and August, and the clubs have opened their doors and are the scenes of much activity.

The inland resorts, the Berkshires, Adirondacks, Catskills, etc., will have very active seasons, for many who have places at the seashore have rented them and gone to the mountains. The summer season, however, will not effect the seashore resorts as much as was expected a couple of weeks ago.

In the city engagements, weddings and outdoor entertainments for charity are the affairs of chief interest to society. The Red Cross Horse Show at Tuxedo Park a week ago Friday and Saturday was the most notable affair held so far and was well attended at all sessions and a large sum was raised.

Half a dozen marriages of importance took place yesterday and many more are scheduled for the remaining days of the month. Miss Maude Rives Ford was married a week ago yesterday to Justice Franklin Chase Hoyt, presiding Justice of the Children's Court, in Zion Church, Wappinger's Falls, N. Y. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the country home of the bride at New Hamburg.

Mrs. Max Baldwin Kaesche, Jr., who was Miss Julia Potter, was the guest for a few days of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarkson Potter, at Clearview, Westchester. Her marriage to Mr. Kaesche was announced in February and they were married soon afterward.

New Yorkers Buy Homes In Berkshires

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

LENOX, MASS., June 15.—The Berkshire resort season, which began with the opening of June, has noted the large number of changes in ownership of estates and in leases of property to prominent New Yorkers. Mrs. Elizabeth Ledyard, of New York, opened this week a new villa on Prospect Hill, in Stockbridge, to pass her first season in the hills. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson Smith have made an enlargement of an old farm house, which they will call The Dugway, from road which passes by their estate. They will move into their residence next week. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh N. Wilson, of New York, have bought Haldon, a country place of 250 acres in Stockbridge, near Lee Glen, and are now occupying it. Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Jackson, of New York, have bought the Leupp property in Tarrytown and Judge Charles Mayer, of New York, has purchased Eden Hill, an estate of 300 acres, with a stone and stucco villa, which lies 200 feet above the village of Stockbridge.

General and Mrs. Charles H. Sherrill, after a season at Lakeside in Lenox, have leased Cold Brook, the estate of the late Captain John S. Barnes. This is one of the choicest places in the Berkshire part of the hills with a beautiful formal garden and tea house. Mrs. Sherrill has arrived at the place and General Sherrill will be at Cold Brook for much of the week. Governor and Mrs. Whitman will be guests of General and Mrs. Sherrill during the season.

Prominent New Yorkers owning cottages in the Berkshires have been at their country places since the beginning of June. Mrs. Joseph H. Choate joined the colony to-day at Naumkeag in Stockbridge, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Appleton Wade arrived at the Stevens villa in Stockbridge. Also arriving this week were Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Stuetz at White Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Godwin at their country place in the Pittsfield road, Mr. George Winthrop Folson at Sunny ank, and Mr. and Mrs. William E. S. Griswold at Wyndhurst.

War activities and war aid have blanketed the former gayeties of the Lenox Junior Tennis Association, and the more formal affairs of the Lenox Garden Club. Every member of the tennis association is engaged either in war or in helping to win it, and the association exists in name only. Miss R. A. Alexander is chairman of the war savings campaign. Miss Anita Deane is directing the Lenox Red Cross work. Miss Alma Clarke is in education in France. Jack Reilly is an interpreter in France. Lieutenant George E. Turner, Jr., is flying with the American aviation force. Lieutenant Ross T. Whistler is in France, and both Will and Arthur Walker are in the service.

Mrs. John E. Alexander, at Spring Lawn, has a colony of high school boys from Boston working on her property. The boys have a camp at Stockbridge Bowl.

Mrs. Mark Hanna, of Cleveland, has been visiting her son, Dan R. Hanna, at Bonanza Brier Farm. She went to Seal Harbor, Me., to-day.

Mrs. J. Lawrence Lee, Henry B. Livingston, Mrs. James R. Jesup, Mrs. Edward de Rose, Mrs. Ten Eyck Wendell, of New York, Lieutenant and Mrs. Richard Gambrill are at Curtis Hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster are at Bellefontaine. Mr. Foster will start shortly for Little Cascapedia River for salmon fishing with his son, Giraud Foster, Jr.

Mr. Arthur Biddle, of Philadelphia, arrived this week to pass the remainder of June with Miss Emily W. Biddle. Mrs. George Band is passing a few weeks with Mrs. William D. Sloane. Mrs. Hayden Channing and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schenck are guests of Mrs. J. Frederick Schenck and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Le Roy Jones are with Mrs. Willis A. Webber.

Mrs. Frederick W. Whitridge and Miss Joan Whitridge are guests of Mrs. Charles P. Greenough in Stockbridge, and Miss Emily Winslow, of New York, is with Miss Marian Hague.

Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed and Mrs. Bristed are at Lakeside for the season. Mrs. John Hutton and Miss Amy Hutton arrived in Tarrytown from Pittsfield, where they were with Mrs. Thomas J. Plummer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. de Gersdorff have arrived at the Vesey place in Stockbridge.

Mrs. Henry Miller, Mrs. Henry A. Dater and Mrs. Miguel R. Martinez, of New York are at the Maplewood Hotel in Pittsfield.

Miss Helen C. Butler opened her country place, Linwood, in Stockbridge to-day.

Lake Placid Refurbishes for Plattsburgers

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

LAKE PLACID, June 15.—To-night marks the real opening of the season here, for a number of dances and dinner parties will be given in honor of men who motor over from the training camp at Plattsburg to spend Sunday with their families now established at the hotels and cottages. The opening of the camp has served to advance the season here, as Lake Placid has long been a popular spot with members of the various groups trained at Plattsburg.

Miss Frieda Hempel is the latest to join Lake Placid's musical colony. She and her husband, William B. Kahn, of New York, will spend their honeymoon at the Placid Club, where they have leased The Larches cottage. At Camp Joyland, on Lake Placid, Victor Herbert, who came early with his wife and daughter, is busy with new musical productions. Mme. Marcella Sembrich is expected soon at The Maples, her club cottage, where she has spent three previous seasons. Mme. de la Roche, widow of Edward de Coppet, founder of the Florenz quartet, will arrive soon with the Misses de Coppet at their club cottage.

George H. Hamlin, Chicago tenor, is at his new Swiss chalet on Signal Hill with Mrs. Hamlin and Miss Hamlin. He is devoting much time to horseback riding, and his daughter is much interested in Red Cross work.

Under the leadership of Mrs. George A. Stevens, chairman, members of Lake Placid Chapter of the Red Cross are preparing for an active season, and much work will also be done by the various hotel auxiliaries. Members of the Woman's Club, Mrs. F. A. Isham, president, will work with the Red Cross. The Woman's Club of Northern New York to place an ambulance in war service.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Maxwell, of New York, who have leased H. H. Keyser's Camp Katona, on Lake Placid, have arrived for the season. Harvey J. Pratt, of New York, has arrived at his Camp Tamarack at Whiteface Inn. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Good, of New York, have again leased Overbrook cottage at Whiteface Inn and are expected soon.

William J. McConville, of Brooklyn, prominent in yachting and golf circles here, has arrived at the Stevens House with his mother, Mrs. C. McConville. Mr. and Mrs. James M. Valentine, of Atlantic City and New York, have again leased the Flanders cottage at the Stevens House group and have arrived for the season. The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, who is each season one of the early cottage arrivals, is at his cottage on the heights near the Grand View Hotel.

Among the sojourners of former seasons who will return to the Grand View is Mrs. John Francis Xavier, of New York, prominent in city and state women's club circles. There are many New York reservations at Northwoods Inn and other Lake Placid hotels.

Lake George Piles Up Bookings for Later in Season

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

LAKE GEORGE, June 15.—The decision of the transportation companies operating in the north country to delay the inauguration of the summer schedules until Monday next has resulted in a material reduction of the early business, although the cottage rentals have never been so heavy. Hotels are now booking practically full for July and August, the major portion of the business coming from New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia, with a goodly sprinkling of reserves from all along the Atlantic coast.

Sir Edgar and Lady Speyer have taken their summer residence at the Tinsman cottage on the east shore. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Dumont and family, of New York City, have arrived at the Old Mill Farm. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Reis, of Greenwich, Conn., have arrived at their cottage at Bolton Landing. Lieutenant George Reis is an inspector in the navy yards.

John Boulton Simpson and daughter, Miss Helen, have arrived at their Green Island home for the summer. Miss Simpson has converted the grass tennis courts of the Sagamore into a war garden.

At the Fort William Henry Hotel the following New Yorkers are registered: Mrs. and Mrs. William Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Street and Miss Street, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gledhill, Mrs. Gledhill, the Misses Gledhill, W. C. E. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Judson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forbes McCreery, Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Collins and A. Lester Meyer.

At the Warden the following New Yorkers are registered: S. M. Morgan, Miss J. S. Robertson, A. B. Huggins, S. K. Royster, C. R. DuBois, Miss M. Lenden, A. S. Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. A. Starbuck, C. W. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. S. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis, A. L. Whipple, T. Benjamin Walter, Mrs. J. T. Plummer and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Plummer.

Saratoga Springs Getting Ready for A Busy Season

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

SARATOGA SPRINGS, June 15.—Although the war has left its touch on this inland resort, still preparations are going forward for the entertainment of its summer population. Indications point to a successful season despite the present condition of the country. The large hotels, the Electric Contractors' Association and the state. After a two days' session it will be followed by the convention of the New York State Sanitary Officers, which will be in session for three days. From July 1 to 8 the American Library Association will be in session here, with headquarters at the Union. The States, which for many years has been under the direction of Messrs. Gage & Perry, will be under the management this season, J. C. LaVin, of the Copley Plaza, of Boston. Among those who have already taken cottages or apartments at the hotel for August are Mayor Hyman and family of New York.

Canfield's famous Casino in the city will be run in connection with the Grand Union and under the direction of Leland Sterry, manager of the Union.

Cottage life, which is quite an important feature here, promises to be of its usual high standard. Already a number of New Yorkers have secured their summer homes, notably Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wilson, who will be at Hillcrest, formerly a part of the Hilton estate, but now the property of E. Clarence Jones, of New York City. Mr. Jones, by the way, has erected on North Broadway one of the most picturesque summer homes in the state. It is a copy of an old English manor house and will be one of the show places of the Spa this season.

and Orchard Inn are among those who report heavy bookings for the Fourth of July, while every other single house reports the prospects the brightest of any season.

At the Bellevue are Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Puller, Charles Buckhard and L. Armbruster.

The Riverside—Mrs. C. W. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Day, Miss Margaret Glickson and Louis E. Hill.

The Forest House—Ida Calver, Elsie

Army and Navy Work the Rule At Asbury Park

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

ASBURY PARK, N. J., June 15.—The first of a series of recreation centres for men in the service was opened here this week, the three-

To-day brought many new families to take possession of villas, and several more beach-front hotels opened for the season.

Announcement was made this week of the engagement of Lieutenant V. F. Valdes, aviation section, naval reserves, of this city, and Miss Kathryn B. Terhune, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Terhune, of Matawan. Both are well known to summer folk along the New Jersey shore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ellis Fisher, of New York, is at the Munching King but expects to take one of the Rhudiand cottages on the coast this summer. Her daughter, Mrs. Lennox Banks, of New York, has one of these cottages and has already arrived.

Red Cross, Y. M. C. A. and Other Relief Activities Take Place of Formal Entertainments at Seashore Resorts

(Special Correspondence to The Tribune.)

NEWPORT, R. I., June 15.—The summer activities among the members of the cottage colony here this year will be more than ever curtailed by the war, for it is not expected that there will be any very large entertainments given in Newport this summer. If there are, they will be, as they have been in the last couple of summers, for the benefit of the Red Cross or some of the other worthy objects for which money is being collected to help in war work.

Members of the summer colony are beginning to arrive in large numbers, each day seeing more of the villas opened. Ocean Drive, Bellevue Avenue and the other centres have become quite lively during the last week or so.

Former United States Senator and Mrs. George Peabody Watson, who spent last winter in New York, arrived during the week, as did Dr. and Mrs. Henry Barton Jacobs, who came from their winter home in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham Glascoy, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sayles, of Pawtucket, who have taken the Whitehouse cottage, on Price's Neck, arrived to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Grand d'Hauterville and daughter also arrived from New York this week, coming in a private car on account of the illness of Mr. d'Hauterville, who was moved from the train to his cottage in an ambulance.

Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, of New York, also was an arrival this week and is at her estate, Hammersmith Farm, in Portsmouth, the home of Lieutenant and Mrs. Reginald Norman, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Barney, of New York. For several seasons Mr. and Mrs. Barney have occupied the Osgood villa on Bellevue Avenue at the corner of Narragansett Avenue. It was rumored some weeks ago that they were looking at the Norman farm, but not known that they had become definite.

Mr. Norman is away on naval duty, and Mrs. Norman has been living at the Munching King, in Warren Street, where she will remain until the summer. Mrs. J. Ellis Fisher, of New York, is at the Munching King but expects to take one of the Rhudiand cottages on the coast this summer. Her daughter, Mrs. Lennox Banks, of New York, has one of these cottages and has already arrived.
